BELIEVING as I do, that PROVIDENCE, at Fairfax Court-House, would be a suitable situation for mechanics of the above description, I offer to such, lots in that village for sale, on ground rent for ever—will build and furnish suitable houses and rent to them, or furnish brick to them to build with ; and invite any who feel disposed to settle there, for the purpose of carrying on their respective trades to advantage, to come and view the situation. It is a very public place, the centre of the county, where the superior and county courts are held. The Little River Turnpike Road passes through this little town from Alexandria westward, and where all the public meetings for the county, &c. are held ; and where trades of the aforesaid description being carried on, would meet with great encouragement, and be a public convenience to the country around. No situation can be more healthy—good water, and fire wood cheap. Mechanics of the above description must generally depend on the country people, farmers, &c. to be their customers. Here they would be in a convenient situation for all the purposes. I invite a call, and view for themselves. I would also furnish lots adjacent, from one to five acres each, for cultivation, pasture, &c. on moderate terms ; all of which can be shown, and terms made known, on application to RICH'D. Fifty Dollars Reward.

RAN away on the 28th of April, from the farm of the subscriber, in Dogue Neck, Fairfax Co. Virginia, negro HARRY, aged about twenty three years, about five feet ten inches high, very black, well built, has a considerable impediment in his speech, when spoken to evinces much confusion, and replies almost unintelligibly : had on when he left home, a much worn suit of domestic cloth. I have every reason to believe that he is endeavoring to pass for a free man, and as such went off in some of the bay craft during the late fishing season. All masters of vessels are forewarned from harboring or taking into their employ said negro, under penalty of having the law rigidly enforced against them. I will give twenty dollars, if taken in the county of Fairfax, or district of Columbia ; if beyond that distance, the above reward, provided he is secured in jail so that I get him again. For Sale or Lease,

THE following tracts of land in Charles county, Maryland : one lying on the Potomac, at the mouth of Pomonkey creek, containing three hundred and forty acres, about 16 miles from Alexandria, the larger portion level land, of a stiff soil, well adapted to the cultivation of corn, wheat and tobacco, and equal in fertility to any in the neighborhood. On this farm is one of the most elegant sites for building of all those fine heights which border the Potomac, commanding the most extensive view of the adjacent country, both in Virginia and Maryland, for more than twenty miles up and down the river : located in a genteel neighborhood, it would make an agreeable residence, and from its proximity to market, with the advantage of the best navigation, an extremely profitable farm.—The tenant's houses would accommodate the negroes for its cultivation.

A Tract, about one mile back from the former, containing 334 acres, a large portion in wood, white and red oak, and some chesnut ; the remainder a tenement in tolerable repair, the whole a high stiff soil, similar to the one above mentioned.

A Tract, lying at the mouth of Mattawoman Creek, about 25 miles from Alexandria, the whole first rate flat river land, now completely enclosed.—On this tract is a noted fishery, called Rum Point, at which there has been cleared upwards of two thousand dollars per annum, and where independent of the fish sold on the shore, there might be put up from one to two thousand barrels every season ; besides the profits of the fishery, the advantage of manuring the farm with the offal of the shore, the whole, with a small portion of industry, might be made to produce ten barrels of corn per acre. On the shore, are a dwelling house, houses for holding salt, and curing any quantity of fish, and for the accommodation of hands.

A Tract, lying about 1½ miles from the last mentioned, containing 236 acres, more than 200 of which are in wood, and would cut from 25 to 30 cords per acre, within one mile of the river, where wood has rarely sold for less than five dollars per cord. It will be divided into 50 or 25 acre lots, to suit purchasers.—If preferred, the wood will be sold standing, for so much per acre.

If not disposed of, previous to the first day of Sept. next, the above mentioned arable lands, will be leased out, upon advantageous terms, for five or seven years, at the option of the lessees.

Application to be made to the subscriber, residing near the head of Mattawoman Creek, Charles county, Maryland.

MONDAY, JULY 12, 1819.

We understand that the Board of Directors of the Bank of the United States, have determined not to declare any dividend for the first six months of the present year. In consequence of the losses which they apprehend, or have actually sustained, from the unexampled failures among their debtors, chiefly in a neighboring city, they have deemed it expedient to reserve in the vaults of the bank the amount of profits, which otherwise would have enabled them to announce a pretty good dividend. It is also understood that a meeting of the stockholders of the institution will be called at an early period, in order to exhibit to them a statement of its affairs. The judicious and rigid measures pursued in the administration of the bank, will we believe, restore it to the national confidence in a short time, and render its stock valuable to the holders. They were all re-taken.

DISTRESSING EFFECTS OF LIGHTNING.

On Sunday about 2 P. M. a violent thunder storm from the N. E. was experienced in this village and vicinity. The dwelling house of Mr. Hezekiah Middlebrook, Jun. was struck by lightning and partially injured—but no persons hurt, though, 16 or 18 were in the house at the time, it becomes our painful task however, to record the death of Mrs. —— Root, wife of Mr. Isaac Root, living about one mile south of the round lake in the town of Malta. Mrs. R. was sitting near the fire place with her infant child in her arms—and two young children by her side, when the moment the flash was seen, she, together with her children, were struck motionless; she expired in a moment. The two oldest children have in a measure recovered, the infant is still considered dangerous. Eight or nine persons were in the house at the time of the accident, and were more or less affected by the shock.

DISTRESSING OCCURRENCE.

On Friday morning last, a child of Mr. William Robertson, of Ballston, aged 18 months, fell into a tub of water near the well, with its head foremost, and continued in this situation unperceived perhaps about five minutes, when its feet were observed by a young woman, who came to the gate near by, and beholding this shocking spectacle, she screamed, and her cries immediately alarmed the mother, and stepmother, who went out to the well—the mother with becoming fortitude, took her infant from under the water, and carried it towards the house—a physician having been previously sent for, arrived, and attempted to resuscitate it to life again, but all his efforts proved fruitless as the vital spark was extinguished forever. The step mother of Mr. R. was very much overcome when she beheld the spectacle, and immediately called for some person to assist her into the house; and requested some of her family to call in her husband as she would not long survive—she reclined herself on the bed and fainted, but partially recovered, and in a few moments after swooned, struggled, and expired. One circumstance attending this catastrophe is very singular. Some time since this old lady was confined by sickness, and her attachment for this child being so very strong, she observed one day, that if it should be the will of providence to call her home, she could willingly submit, if she could but carry this infant in her arms. The ways of Jehovah are mysterious indeed.—The old lady had her request gratified.—They both expired about the same time

BLACK EMIGRATION.

It is ascertained to be a fact, that a few weeks since, about 270 free negroes landed at Ripley, Ohio, and have since proceeded to near the centre of Brown county, where they are to be located and put in possession of land provided for them, agreeable to the will of a Mr. Gess, who formerly owned them. It is said they are as destitute of information and depraved as any of their kind, and their departure has been hailed with joy by the neighborhoods in which they have lived. From the best information we have been able to procure, they have not been very cordially received by the people of Ohio, especially the citizens of Brown county, among whom their arrival has produced considerable agitation.

EXTRACT OF A LETER FROM ITALY,
Dated 10th April.

"The concourse of strangers at Rome is said to be beyond precedent. By the Lydia & Mary, we have received late Bermuda papers, from one of which we copy the following articles: [Relf.

From the Bermuda Gazette, June 19.

The Caraccas Gazette of the 21st of April, contains two official accounts of actions fought between a detachment of the royalists, commanded by Pereira, and the independents under Bolivar, Paez, Sublette, and Ansoategui. The first of which took place on the 27th of March, at Trapiche de la Gamerra, in which the independents are stated to have lost 400 men killed and wounded, and 35 prisoners; the loss of the royalists amounted to 13 killed and 48 wounded. The force of the independents is not exactly known. It is stated to have consisted of the windward and Barcelona battalions of infantry, a rifle corps, partly English, some guides and upwards of 1000 horses.—The whole of the Spanish force consisted of 266 infantry, and 98 cavalry.

The second is dated Aranca, April 3, and details an action, or rather a succession of skirmishes, which took place on the right bank of the river Arauca, between the 30th of March and the 2d of April.—The loss on the part of the royalists was 14 killed and 15 wounded; that of the independents must have been considerable, from the number of dead found on the roads; the dispatch says that it is not easy to calculate the loss of the enemy.

Letters received at Curacoa and Jamaica, from the Island of St. Thomas, dated the 17th, 21st, and 22d of April, contain the two following paragraphs:

"The Spanish army is posted at St. Jayme: this town is situated in the province of Caracas. We have seen an extraordinary Caracas Gazette of the 31st ultimo, which gives an official account of some successes obtained by Morillo, on the 11th. We are led to enquire why this document has been withheld from the public twenty days, when San Jayme is distant from the capital but six or eight days, and Achaguas only eight or ten.

"Beluche is before this port. One of the transports which lately conveyed the remainder of the English troops to Margaritta, has arrived here. The Spaniards inform us, that Bolivar was repulsed by Pereira in an attack against St. Fernando, made by the British troops. Fourteen hundred men, being the remainder of Col. English's expedition, have arrived at Margaritta; with the six hundred already there, and two thousand Creoles, there is an army of four thousand men at that place."

On the re-capture of Porto Bello by the Spanish forces, and of the flight of M'Gregor, our readers have already been fully informed. The following narrative, however, as connected with the affair of Sir Gregor's expedition, is not uninteresting. It is taken from the Jamaica Royal Gazette, of the 22d ultimo:

Five women, whose husbands were either killed or taken prisoners at the recapture of Porto Bello, and three children who were brought here in the Confiance, were sent on Thursday to the public hospital of this city; one of them was wounded in the neck by a musket ball; another is the wife of a printer, of the name of Cox whom Sir Gregor brought with him from England, with a few printing materials, and who was wounded in his apartment, made prisoner, and marched to Panama: His wife and the other women were marched out of the town along with the soldiery, but after proceeding a few miles, they became fatigued, and sat down on the road side, refusing to proceed further, upon which it was deemed expedient to send them back to the town, and they were permitted to depart in the Confiance.—This person, who is intelligent, states that, on hearing some firing on the morning of the attack, she looked out of her window, which was on the parade, when she saw the Spanish troops led into the square by the Alcade of the place, whom she knew, and who had remained in the town after its capture by M'Gregor, but who had left it late the night before, after having, however, supped with the English officers.

The Spanish troops, having overcome those of the English soldiery who were exercising in the square, entered the different houses, among which was that of her husband; they fired through the doors, then broke open the room in which they were, stabbed her husband in the arm, but on their making signs that they were unarmed, they desisted from further violence, and made her husband prisoner, but shewed no incivility whatever to herself. She further represents that the English troops had been in a state of insubordination, bordering on mutiny, for many days previous to the re-capture, from the numerous disappointments with which they had met, having been almost starved from the moment they embarked in England; that many of the officers had already sent in their commissions to M'Gregor, expressing their determination to quit his service, and it was pretty generally surmised among them, for some days before the attack, that M'Gregor himself intended to decamp clandestinely, for it was stated that he had obtained and packed up several boxes of money, which he had sent on board the Hero. This perhaps accounts for the celerity of his retreat on that memorable occasion.

EXTRACTS FROM NOAH'S TRAVELS.

"The Spanish women, and particularly the ladies of Andalusia, constitute the most important and influential part of the population of that country. It is incredible what real indifference exists, and what disparity is evident, between the men and women; whether this arises from the known want of stamina and character, on the part of the men, their little acquaintance with the arts and sciences, their bigotry, or rather the intolerance of their fate, I cannot say; but there is a coldness about them, a saturnine indifference, not discernible in the females. The men, though reserved, are excessively polite; full of compliments without meaning, and of profession without sincerity. We read much, and hear more, respecting the jealousy of the Spaniards; of their suspicious nature; their bars and bolts; their duennas and grated windows: all this is romance; there is less jealousy evinced in Spain than in any other country I have visited. There is no fastidiousness in their families; a husband introduces you to his wife with the most perfect confidence; and to his daughter, if single, with a perfect reliance, which is never shaken, on her virtue, and your integrity. There are seldom instances of an aberration from virtue, on the part of the unmarried women; and it is strangely irreconcileable that after marriage, all restraint being removed, women are seldom found without a lover, or as he is called, a Cortejo;—and what is most extraordinary, the lover and husband are affectionate friends, frequently inhabiting one house, and exercising an equality of jurisdiction. Spanish women, have generally dark or olive complexions, large black piercing eyes, fine teeth, which are sometimes injured by eating dolces or sweets, and a noble majestic walk, for which they are eminently distinguished.—They cannot be called beautiful, but they never fail to interest. Their vivacity and sensibility, the unaffected ease of their manners, their general politeness and address, joined to the advantages resulting from the most rich and copious language in the world, give to them the most surprising advantages; and evidently place the men in a secondary rank and condition.

The women dress alike in Spain; they usually wear black Bombazin, or silk petticoats, rather short and filled at the bottom with shot or lead, to give a due weight or pressure to the garment; a light boddice with long sleeves of the same materials, or sometimes, for contrast, of white silk; a half coloured Barcelona or Bandanna handkerchief, pinned close over their neck and bosom; a black or white silk veil thrown over the head and brought under the chin, and there crossed so as to expose the face; white silk stockings, neat shoes, and a fan in their hand. Thus attired, they assemble in great numbers at the close of the afternoon, on a long walk fronting the sea, called the Alumada, which is commodiously arranged, with stone benches, and lined with trees to make it an agreeable promenade. Here the whole city is seen without any discrimination as to rank or character; and this general rendezvous, affords to a stranger, at one view, all that is attractive, fashionable or elegant. They meet in summer, about six o'clock, and the crowd increases until dark. At the going down of the sun, the bells from all the churches, chime, the oraccoues, or vespera; the croud stops, the loud laugh and the hum of voices, are instantaneously suspended, the air of gaity gives place to unaffected and pious looks, each person crosses himself, and says a short prayer, to return thanks to the Disposer of all good, that another day has passed in peace.—The bell stops in a minute, each person passes the compliment of the evening to the other, the crowd moves on, and again all is life and animation. No religious ceremony is so solemn, and at the same time so wholly commendable. Millions pausing at the same moment, suspending the hilarity of conversation, the gaiety of thought, the tender sentiment of love, to give place to pious reflections and grateful acknowledgments!"

From the Ladies' Literary Cabinet.

THE BLIND MOTHER.

I saw a mother! in her arms
Her infant child was sleeping;
The mother, while the infant slept,
Her guardian watch was keeping.

Around its little tender form
Her snow white arm was flung,
And o'er its little infant head
Her bending tresses hung.

"Sleep sweetly on, my darling babe,
My own, my only child;"
And as she spoke the infant woke,
And on its mother smil'd.

But oh! no fondly answering smile
The mother's visage grac'd,
For she was blind, and could not see
The infant she embrac'd.

But now he lisp'd his mother's name,
And now the mother press'd
Her darling, much lov'd baby boy,
Unto her widow'd breast.

But sudden anguish seiz'd her mind,
Her voice was sweetly wild:
"My God," she cried, "but grant me sight,
One hour! to see my child!

"To look upon its cherub face,
And see its father's there;
But pardon, if the wish be wrong,
A widow'd mother's prayer!"

And as she spoke, her anguish grew
More louder and more wild;
And closer to her aching breast
She clasp'd her orphan child.

SPANISH TREATY RATIFIED.

Capt. Ripley, of the schr. Zephyr, who has arrived at Boston in 47 days from Cadiz, informs, that "the American Envoy had been well received at Madrid; that the treaty ceding the Floridas was ratified, and Lieut. Read was daily expected at Cadiz with the ratification, to bring it to America in the sloop of war Hornet, appointed to sail the 1st of June, for New-York.

"Two Spanish 74's and a frigate for Lima, sailed from Cadiz a few days before the Zephyr—but they carried out no troops It was not supposed that the grand expedition would depart before August."

Capt. R. brought despatches for government.

LATEST FROM ENGLAND.

Arrived this morning, the Packet Ship COURIER, in 37 days from Liverpool. By this arrival, the Editors of the Commercial Advertiser have received from their London and Liverpool Correspondents, London papers to the 29th of May, Lloyd's lists to the 28th General Shipping and commercial Lists to the 29th, the New Price Current to the 28th, and Liverpool papers to the 31st, all inclusive. Capt. Bowne has obligingly favored us with a file of the latest papers.

The Kingdom of Great Britain is furnished with another presumptive heir to the throne in the birth of a daughter to the Dutchess of Kent. This event took place on the morning of the 24th of May.

A letter from Rome, of the 10th of May, states that the town of Tunis has lost half of its inhabitants by the plague. The letter adds, that "the terror of the sword will shortly be added to this dreadful scourge. News has arrived of an insurrection among the Arabs in the interior, and they are about to march against the capital, to the number of 15,000 horsemen, commanded by a Tripolitan named Califer-el-Haver. The Tunisian Minister had put himself at the head of a body of troops, and marched to repel the invasion."

A letter from Copenhagen, dated the 15th of May, mentions, that the King of Denmark has declared Siglefiord, in the N. E. of Iceland, an authorized place of trade, & that Raudarhaon may be visited by ships for two years, but without being considered as a place of trade.

Paris papers received in London to the 25th of May, announce, that a second projet of a law on the press has passed in the Chamber of Peers, by a majority of 133 to 34.

Accounts from Hamburgh up to the 21st of May state, that the reports of the French papers of misunderstandings between Sweden and other northern powers, is without foundation, and that no proposition, had been made to CHARLES JOHN, to abdicate the throne. The rumor of such a proposition having been made is contemptuously contradicted in an official article in the Stockhom Gazette. An article under the head of St. Petersburgh, April 30th, says, "There is an active exchange of Couriers between our court and that of Stockholm; but no one yet knows what is in agitation, and all that foreign Journals circulate on the subject only rest upon vague suppositions."

C. Maxwell, esq. is appointed governor of the island of St. Christopher, and Sir S. F. Whittingham, governor of the island of St. Dominica.

Prince Leopold arrived in England on the 28th of May.

DON ANTONIO JOSE DE YRISARRI, commissioned as general deputy and representative of the government of Chili to England, arrived at London on the 22nd of May. He was the bearer of the treaty between Chili and Buenos Ayres, for the liberation of Peru.

A letter from Weissembourg, of the 19th of May, states, that an extraordinary recruitment has been commenced in Rhenish Bavaria. The levy is in a proportion three times greater than in France. It will be recollected that the Bavarian army has refused to take the oath of fidelity to the Constitution, and it is thought that the government have it in view to recompose the army entirely of young soldiers more disposed than the old ones to adopt constitutional principles.

American Stocks on the 29th of May:—Three per cents, none; new six per cents, 99 a 101; U. S. bank shares £24 a £24 10s.

French Funds on the 26th of May, five per cents, 66f. 95c.

Philadelphia, July 10.

YELLOW FEVER.

We know, (says Poulson's Daily Advertiser) that unpleasant reports have been circulated in our own city, and consequently gone abroad, that a malignant fever had made its appearance in Philadelphia—the fact is otherwise, and were it necessary, the proper authority could easily satisfy the public that such reports are entirely void of truth. The city and vicinity, there is every reason to believe, were never healthier than at present.

Sale of Valuable Land.

BY virtue of a deed of trust, the subscriber will offer at public sale, at Mr. Hardy's tavern, Piscataway, on Thursday, 5th August, next, several tracts or parcels of land, on Mattawoman Run, about three miles from Piscataway, lying partly in Prince George's county, and partly in Charles county, called and known by the names of Strife, Bonton enlarged, Friendship & Smallwood's meadows, Thompson's Hoop Thickets, and four acres of land adjoining, containing in the whole 420 acres, 1 rood, 18 perch. more or less; which said lands were heretofore conveyed by Thomas Mundell, esq. trustee for the sale of the real estate of N. Blacklock, late of Charles co. deceased, to N. F. Blacklock, late of Alexandria, and by him to the subscriber.

These lands have been, I am told, considerably improved lately by the use of clover and plaster: their susceptibility of still further improvement by these easy means, and their nearness to the Potomac, render them certainly very desirable.

Terms of sale—two thousand dollars to be paid on the day of sale, and the balance on the 1st day of January, 1820, when possession will be given. Upon the payment of the whole of the purchase money, the subscriber will execute a good and sufficient deed, conveying to the purchaser all the right and title of the late N. F. Blacklock, subject to the widow's dower.

She is 17 or 18 years of age, of stout size, flat nose, downcast look, and a projecting forehead, but notwithstanding she is likely. There is no doubt, as she went off without provocation, that she will endeavor to make her entire escape. She has a mother in Georgetown, an aunt in Washington, and a grandmother at Notly Hall, the seat of Doctor Dangerfield, near the Alexandria Ferry; at either of which places she may probably tarry. The above reward will be given to any person who may secure her either in Georgetown, Washington, or Alexandria jail, so that I get her again; but if taken out of the state, ONE HUNDRED DOLLARS will be given.

Most Valuable Landed Property for Sale.

BEING anxious to move to the south-western country, I am disposed to sell that most valuable and well known farm in Charles county, Maryland, called The Meadows, and a part of Westwood Manor.—This tract contains 930 acres, is most eligibly situated, lying in the fork of the two branches of the Wicomico river. As to fertility of soil, and advantages of every description, it is equalled but by few—surpassed by none.

Also, the farm on which I reside, called Somerset, in the County of King George, Virginia. This tract contains 676 acres, by late survey, and is also well situated, lying on the Potomac river, (opposite col. J. Taylor's Maryland Poin testate) and bounded by the same upwards of a mile, is in a progressive state of improvement under the clover and plaster system, which has succeeded beyond my most sanguine expectations.

Also, two other small tracts in Westmoreland county, Va. containing 325 acres.

Also, 1140 acres of military land, in the state of Ohio.

As it is presumed that no person will (and as it is my desire that no one should) purchase without viewing the premises, I will not give a minute description of these tracts. Indisputable title will be made in every instance. Persons wishing to purchase, will please make application personally, or by letter addressed, to the subscriber, near Hampstead post office, Va.

Public Sale.

ON FRIDAY, the 9th instant, at 12 o'clock of that day, by virtue of a deed of trust, we will sell at public auction, to the highest bidder, on the premises, that very valuable tract of land in Fairfax county, near Holmes's Run, and about four miles from Alexandria, generally known by the name of containing about 115 acres. This land is about one half in wood—the balance cleared, and in cultivation, with convenient buildings on it, and excellent water near them. A considerable proportion of the open land is fertile, and well calculated for timothy meadows.

The sum of $2,254 77 cts will be required to be paid in cash; for the residue a credit of twelve months will be given from the day of sale, the purchaser paying interest thereon, and giving satisfactory security for the punctual payment thereof. A conveyance will be made when the purchase money and interest is all paid up. If the terms of the sale should not be complied with by the purchaser, the premises will be immediately re-sold to the highest bidder, at the risque of the person to whom it shall have been struck off; and the same course will be repeated until an effectual sale shall have taken place.

Lands for Sale.

BY virtue of a power of attorney from William S. Courts to the subscriber, will be sold at public sale
On WEDNESDAY, the 18th AUGUST, in Port Tobacco, that valuable tract of land whereon John H. Barnes at present resides called lying and being in Charles county, Maryland, containing between three and four hundred acres. This land is handsomely situated, lying immediately on Mattawoman Creek, at least one third of which is in wood, with a sufficient quantity of marsh land for grazing—that part of the land which is in cultivation is well adapted to the growth of corn, wheat and tobacco, and with proper care would be equal, if not superior to any land in that neighborhood.

Whitland and Cole,

ALSO,

At the same time and place, will be offered for sale the plantation at present in the occupancy of Francis & Samuel Wheeler, lying about one mile from the above place, containing about four hundred acres. As it is presumed that persons wishing to purchase will first view the premises, it is thought unnecessary to give a more particular description thereof. The terms of sale will be as follows: viz. possession given on the first day of January next, at which time one third of the purchase money will be required, the remaining two thirds at one and two years, the purchaser giving bond with approved security with interest.—Upon the payment of the whole purchase money, a sufficient deed will be executed to the purchaser.

JOHN HOPKINS

Hill and Dale, April 20.

Piscataway for Sale.

THIS elegant estate is situated on the Potomac, 16 miles below Alexandria—it is bounded on three sides by the Potomac and Pohick creek, and contains nearly 3,000 acres of land, level and fertile, to which are attached six shad and herring fisheries, two of which command the river channel. This land will be laid off in four tracts, so as to have one or more fisheries to each; these tracts will be again divided if requisite. This estate is level and beautifully situated, very fertile, and remarkably healthy. Plaister acts with an effect equal to that of any part of Virginia or Pennsylvania.—I have used 500 bushels in twelve months, and such is its beneficial operation, that were I to keep this land I should considerably increase the quantity. A manufacturing mill is distant about two miles, on a stream navigable for vessels carrying 1200 bushels of wheat, where the Baltimore and Dist. of Columbia prices are given for grain: being bounded on 3 sides by water, a small extent only of fence is necessary to inclose the whole: it would be admirably adapted to grazing. The improvements are a large and very substantial brick mansion, 40 by 70 feet, with every necessary outhouse, three commodious barns, houses for Negroes, and fish houses at each of the fisheries. 120,000 bricks and 1000 bushels of lime are just burnt on the premises. There is a considerable extent of live fence, both useful and ornamental, two orchards of well selected apples and peach, besides an abundance of other choice fruit. More than 150 acres are in clover, 200 in corn, and land is in preparation for sowing 250 bushels of small grain. Any quantity of hay can be cut from the low grounds, some of which (and all might,) have been reclaimed at a trifling expense. The river and creeks, abound with wild fowl, particularly canvass backs, the woods with deer and a variety of other game. Mules, cattle, highly improved sheep, farming utensels and household furniture can be had. The terms of sale will be accommodating. Property in any of the cities, negroes, bank stock, western lands, or lands near the Ridge, will be taken in payment.—Letters must be addressed to me at Pohick Church, Fairfax county, Virginia.

S. Drew, Merchant Tailor,

Removed from Fairfax-street to the corner of King and Columbus streets, and his prices falling

RESPECTFULLY acquaints his customers and the citizens in general that he has removed as above, where he will study to give satisfaction. S. Drew aware, of the advantage a ready money business has over one where long credit is given, thinks that a distinction ought to be made in the prices in each case: and as the price of provisions are low at present, he is glad to be able to announce to those customers who will feel disposed to pay him ready money for his work, that he will reduce the price of making to them according to the present journeymen's wages; and to prevent any supposed imposition on the one hand or disatisfaction on the other he is willing to be goverued by the printed regulations of prices by which the journeymen are paid in Alexandria.

N. B. Bread, flour, beef, groceries, liquors or any thing valuable taken in exchange for clothes.

S. Drew has this day opened a tavern in the same house, where he has laid in a a supply of Philadelphia and the district porter and ale, together with liquors of the best quality, and he feels confident that he shall be able to give satisfaction to all who will please to favor him with a call.—He is fitting up his house for the accommodation of boarders, travellers, &c. and from its central situation, good beds and stabling, together with other requisites, he presumes that it will be found a convenient establishment. may 25

PROSPECTUS

Of a new periodical work to be published in the city of Washington, entitled the Washington Theological REPERTORY.

EDITORS. { Rev. Wm Hawley, Washington. Rev. Wm. H. Wilmer, Alexandria, Rev. Oliver Norris, Alexandria, Rev. Reuel Keith, Georgetown.

Assisted by several other literary gentlemen of the Protestant Episcopal Church.

IF any apology were necessary for this undertaking, it may be found in the fact, that there is no publication on a similar plan, in all that section of our country lying south of New-York, and but one in the whole of the United States. It has been matter of equal surprize and regret, that the Episcopal Church should be so far behind other Christian denominations, in similar efforts to disseminate the principles of religion and piety. At a period like the present, when the Lord is preparing his way on earth, by the most remarkable efforts of human agency, and the most wonderful operations of his providence and grace—when we perceive in every part of Christendom, a praise-worthy emulation to share in the glorious work of filling the earth with the knowledge of the only true God, and his Son Jesus Christ; it would seem criminal for any to withhold their exertions, however feeble, in the great enterprize of human happiness and salvation. The editors have, therefore, felt it their duty to make this humble effort to supply this acknowledged deficiency on the part of the church in this section of the country, and to bear their share in the common exertions of Christians to promote the Redeemer's Kingdom. And having obtained the services of a gentleman, in whose talents and principles they have confidence, whose time will be wholly devoted to the superintendence of the work, they feel encouraged to solicit the patronage of the public.

The publecation will be conducted under the immediate inspection and control of the above named editors, who will form a committee to review every article intended for publication. The principles upon which it will be conducted are those of the bible, as illustrated in the articles, Liturgy and Homilies of the Protestant Episcopal Church. As members of this church the editors will feel bound to support the Apostolical character of her institutions, the pious tendency of her rites and ceremonies, and the evangelical nature of her doctrines But in these, and all other discussions, they hope never to loose sight of that great law of charity which teaches us to "preserve the unity of the spirit in the bond of peace."

Acting upon those catholic principles, so long and so successively pursued by "The Christian Observer," their chief object will be to inculcate sound theological knowledge, and to delineate and recommend pure and vital religion. They trust therefore, that while the members of every Christian denomination may find something edifying and instructive, none will discover any just cause for offence in the pages of this work. General subjects of biblical criticism, practical illustrations of scriptural truth, the biography of illustrious persons, evidences of the truth of revelation, essays on the history and polity of the church, reviews of interesting publications, religious, literary and philosophical intelligence—in short, whatever is connected with the promotion of religion, humanity and literature, will find a place in this repository

The testimony of experience supersedes the necessity of dwelling on the advantages of a periodical publication on the plan proposed. Its obvious tendency will be to render the various departments of religious knowledge more easy and accessible, and give a more ready currency and wider circulation, to those great truths which involve the present welfare and future destiny of man.

It will tend powerfully to stimulate the exertions of the editors, and console them under the difficulties attendant on the prosecution of this work, amidst many other avocations, should it prove the means under the blessing of God, of enriching any of its readers with the saving knowledge of Christ, and prepare them for a participation in the felicity and glory of his heavenly kingdom. With this hope they commit it into his hands, and confidently solicit their brethren of the clergy and laity to assist them in carrying into effect the objects of the undertaking.

TERMS OF THE WORK.

A volume of the Repertory shall consist of twelve numbers, of which one shall be published on the first day of every month, containing thirty-two large octavo pages, stitched in blue, and attended with a table of contents.

The paper used in the work shall be good, and the typography executed with the greatest care.

The price of a volume is two dollars, payable in advance; to such as omit the advance, two dollars and fifty cents.

It is designed to enlarge the size of the work, without increasing the price, as soon as one thousand subscribers shall be obtained.

Communications and remittances may be directed to any of the editors, post paid.

Any person becoming responsible for five subscribers, shall receive a sixth copy gratis.

The first number may be expected in the month of July. June 26
